THE MAINE CELTICS

Founded in 2009, the Maine Red Claws have been a pillar of success in the Portland sports community, both on and off the court. On May 24, 2021, a new era began for NBA G League basketball in Maine. After eleven seasons as the Maine Red Claws, the team officially rebranded – from now on, the franchise will be known as the Maine Celtics! This major change is the next step forward for Maine. After the franchise was purchased by the Boston Celtics in 2019, work began on aligning their NBA G League team closer with the Celtics brand.

"I'm as excited about this change as I was when we started the Maine Red Claws back in 2009," said Maine Celtics Team President Dajuan Eubanks. "Directly aligning our franchise name with the iconic Boston Celtics brand creates a new era of heritage building for basketball here in Maine."

"When we purchased the Maine franchise in 2019, we immediately made that organization a part of our family," said Boston Celtics Team President Rich Gotham. "The decision to rename the team to 'Maine Celtics' is the next step in that evolution, and a nod to our diehard fan base, which extends throughout the great state of Maine."

The history of the Celtics and Maine goes back almost to the beginning of the Boston Celtics franchise. Boston started coming to Maine in 1947 for exhibition games and barnstorming tours across the state. The Celtics even played a regular season game at the then-brand-new Bangor Auditorium in 1955.

While the team was not participating in the optional G League bubble during the 2020-21 season, the front office staff was hard at work putting the pieces together of what would become a new look – with the name change comes a new logo, new uniforms, new court, even a new Crusher!

But we haven't forgotten about our past. We remain committed to playing in Maine and living in our Maine communities, now more than ever. The future is bright for the Maine Celtics!

COACHING STAFF

Phil Pressey, Head Coach

Head Coach - Phil Pressey

Phil Pressey returns to the Maine Celtics for a second season as Head Coach. In his first season, Pressey led the Celtics to a 27-23 overall record, including the team's fourth consecutive berth in the NBA G League Playoffs. Maine was one of six teams to qualify for both the league in-season tournament as well as the standard G League postseason.

On July 2, 2025, Phil Pressey made history, accepting the role of Head Coach for the 2025-26 NBA G League season.

Pressey became the first head coach in franchise history to also play for Maine during his career. The former NBA guard played at the Porltand Expo while on assignment from the Boston Celtics during the 2014-15 season.

"I'd like to thank Brad Stevens, Joe Mazzulla, and the entire Celtics organization for believing in me and giving me a chance to grow, lead, and develop," said Pressey. "I'm grateful for the opportunity and I will give my all to this team. The community of Portland is amazing, and I remember my time as a player was unforgettable at the Expo. My goal is to instill winning habits into every player who suits up for the Maine Celtics."

Pressey began his coaching career in 2022 as an assistant coach with his alma mater, the University of Missouri. He then joined the Boston Celtics in 2023 where he has been ever since, working as a Player Development coach.

A three-year standout at Missouri, Pressey played in 148 career NBA games over three seasons, 125 of those with the Celtics from 2013-15. In that time, he averaged 3.1 points, 1.9 rebounds, and 2.9 assists per game. Additionally, he played in 78 career G League games from 2014-17.

"Phil is a dedicated coach who has been instrumental in our player development over the last two seasons," said Boston Celtics Head Coach Joe Mazzulla. "I am looking forward to seeing him grow as a coach and leader. He shows great energy and a willingness to learn. His personality and communication will be a gift to his players."

Pressey is the son of former NBA player Paul Pressey, who also was an assistant coach for seven NBA teams from 1992-2016.

Evans Boston is entering his eleventh season with the Red Claws/Celtics. Evans has been covering the team since their inception as a member of the media. For 7 years, Boston served as a sports anchor and reporter for WGME in Portland. His departure from WGME coincided with Will McClaran's acceptance of a job with the NBA's New Orleans Pelicans. The timing was perfect, and Boston was thrilled to join the Red Claws front office in October of 2014.

Boston has over a decade of experience as a TV personality, but now has crossed over to the "other side." He is a Maine native, a graduate of York High School in York. Boston graduated from Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communication with a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism.

Boston was a key reserve player for the York High School freshman basketball team, and a star bench player on the baseball team as well.
