PHIL PRESSEY	Head Coach
Overall Record: 30-24 (.556)	Seasons as Head Coach in G League: 2 Seasons as Head Coach with Maine: 2

Head Coach - Phil Pressey

On July 2, 2025, Phil Pressey made history, accepting the role of Head Coach for the 2025-26 NBA G League season. Pressey became the first head coach in franchise history to also play for Maine during his career. The former NBA guard played at the Portland Expo while on assignment from the Boston Celtics during the 2014-15 season.

On October 1, 2026, the Maine Celtics announced that Pressey would be returning for a second season as head coach.

"I'm grateful for another opportunity to lead the Maine Celtics," said Pressey. "The goal is for everyone who comes through the Expo to leave better than when they got here. Going into my second season, I'm excited to give all I can to the community and the Celtics organization."

Pressey is the first returning Maine head coach in seven seasons. In his first season as a head coach at any level, Pressey led Maine to a 27-23 record overall. The Maine Celtics reached the NBA G League Playoffs for a fourth consecutive season. Maine was one of six G League teams to qualify for both the league's in-season tournament and the traditional G League Playoffs last season.

Pressey began his coaching career in 2022 as an assistant coach with his alma mater, the University of Missouri. He then joined the Boston Celtics in 2023, where he has been ever since, working as a Player Development coach.
A three-year standout at Missouri, Pressey played in 148 career NBA games over three seasons, 125 of those with the Celtics from 2013-15. In that time, he averaged 3.1 points, 1.9 rebounds, and 2.9 assists per game. Additionally, he played in 78 career G League games from 2014-17.

Pressey is the son of former NBA player Paul Pressey, who also was an assistant coach for seven NBA teams from 1992-2016.
