MAINE CELTICS NOTES

905 SMACK CELTS (AGAIN): Maine was swept in Canada, falling again to Raptors 905 on Dec. 28, 124-100. Once again, the Celtics struggled to shoot the ball from deep, going 7-35 (20%) from three-point range. Maine turned the ball over 23 times, and committed 24 personal fouls. Ron Harper Jr. led the scoring with 17 points, below his scoring average for a second consecutive game. Stefan Todorovic added 16 points off the bench, while Jalen Bridges scored 13 in the loss.

O, CANADA: The Maine Celtics struggled to score early and were out of the game quickly, getting blown out by Raptors 905 on Dec. 27, 125-92. Maine trailed by as many as 35 in the game, and dug themselves into a huge hole shooting just 1-16 from three-point range in the first half. Stefan Todorovic wound up leading the Celtics in scoring with 18 points off the bench, while Ron Harper Jr. added 16 in the loss. Hayden Gray scored 10 as the only other player in double figures. Maine shot 18.8% (6-32) from three in the game. The 905 meanwhile went 13-33 (39.4%) from beyond the arc, and shot 51.6% (47-91) from the floor in the win. Maine scored just 34 points in the first half.

CELTICS TAKE DOWN SPURS: Maine closed out the NBA G League Winter Showcase with a consolation game win over #3 Austin on Dec. 21, 123-114. The bounce-back effort was led by Maine's Two-Way players – Ron Harper Jr. led the Celtics with 29 points, Max Shulga added a career-high 27 points, and Amari Williams chipped in 18 points in the win. Maine won the game despite being out-shot and out-rebounded by Austin – the Celtics shot just 40.4% (40-99) from the floor, but made 19 of 21 free throw attempts in the win. Maine forced 25 Spurs turnovers in the game. After giving up 68 points in the first half, the Celtics held Austin to just 46 in the second half - the win was Maine's first of the season when trailing after three quarters of play.

SEEING STARS: #7 Maine controlled the game in the 1st quarter but ultimately could not keep up with the #2 Salt Lake City Stars, falling in the Winter Showcase Tournament quarterfinals by a 123-107 margin. Ron Harper Jr. returned to action after missing three games with a knee injury and picked up right where he left off, leading Maine with 29 points. Jalen Bridges added a season-high 28 points including 8-14 from three-point range. Kendall Brown added 17 points in the loss. Maine was out-rebounded 58-36 in the game, and shot 39.8% (37-93) from the floor. The game marked the start of the Regular Season, meaning that the Celtics are now 0-1 after the standings reset.

CELTICS HANG TOUGH: Maine had undefeated Raptors 905 against the ropes on Dec. 14, but the 905 were able to erase a 10-point deficit and take down the Celtics, 112-107. Maine was without guards Ron Harper Jr. and Keon Johnson for the game. Kendall Brown led all scorers with 23 points, while Max Shulga added 16 in the loss. Raptors 905 shot 51.3% (39-76) from the floor and 44.1% (15-34) from three-point range. Maine turned the ball over 21 times in the loss.

NINE IN A ROW! The Maine Celtics are currently under a franchise record nine-game winning streak after the Dec. 10 come-from-behind win at Capital City, 112-101. Down by as many as 11 in the first half, Maine roared back in the 3rd quarter, ending the period on a 26-2 run to take the lead and cruise to victory. The Celtics out-scored the Go-Go 34-16 in the 3rd, making 6 three-pointers. Max Shulga led the Celtics with a career-high 25 points, while Keon Johnson contributed a strong second half to finish with 21 points, 9 rebounds, and 6 assists. Hason Ward and Stefan Todorovic each scored 14 in the win, while Aaron Scott added 10 points off the bench. Maine out-rebounded Capital City 49-32 and won the game despite forcing only 8 Go-Go turnovers.

CELTICS ADD NBA VET: Maine acquired guard Keon Johnson off of waivers on Dec. 1. The 21st overall pick in the 2021 NBA Draft, Johnson has played in 161 career NBA games, including 79 for Brooklyn last season. He averaged 10.6 points per game for the Nets in 2024-25. Johnson has also played in 57 G League games in his career, 41 of those with Long Island in 2023-24.

HARPER JR. NAMED POW: Maine Celtics Two-Way guard Ron Harper Jr. was named NBA G League Player of the Week for games played Nov. 17-23. Harper led Maine to a perfect record in the week, averaging 36.0 points per game. He threw in a career-high 46 points in the Nov. 21 win over Delaware, the fifth most in a single game in franchise history.

ASSISTS ASSIST BIG COMEBACK: The Maine Celtics dished out a Franchise Record 43 assists in Maine's come-from-behind 129-119 win over Delaware on Nov. 23. The Celtics trailed by as many as 23 points in the first half before roaring back.

HARPER GOES OFF TO CARRY CELTICS: Ron Harper Jr. dropped a career-high 46 points including the game-winner with :01 remaining to lift Maine to a 113-111 win over Delaware on Nov. 21. With 46 points, Ron Harper Jr. ties JD Davison for the 5th most points in a single game in franchise history. Fresh off a 19-point 4th quarter in his previous game, Harper scored 27 in the first half and 39 points through three quarters, including a buzzer-beating three to end the 3rd. Harper scored the final 7 points for Maine, and also added a career-high 8 assists and 7 rebounds. Harper went 16-26 from the floor and 7-14 from three-point range.

THAT WAS FAST: The Maine Celtics have their first GATORADE Call-Up to the NBA of the season. Wendell Moore Jr. signed a Two-Way contract with the Detroit Pistons on Nov. 10. Moore averaged 21.5 points over Maine's first two games of the season, including a career-best 28 point performance on Nov. 7. The NBA veteran has played 90 games in his career for Minnesota, Charlotte, and Detroit. Last season, two Maine Celtics earned call-ups – Ron Harper Jr. (Two-Way, Detroit) and Phillip Wheeler (10-day, Philadelphia).

PRESSEY MAKES DEBUT: Maine Celtics new head coach Phil Pressey made his head coaching debut Nov. 7 at Greensboro. Pressey, who served as a player development coach in Boston last season, was named 11th head coach in Maine franchise history this fall, replacing Tyler Lashbrook, who left to accept a full-time assistant coach position with the Boston Celtics. Pressey is the first Maine head coach who also played for the franchise – the former point guard played one game for the then-Maine Red Claws during the 2014-15 season, scoring 34 points. Former Maine head coach Jarell Christian remains general manager of Maine for a fourth season.

NEW TWO-WAYS: The Maine Celtics have three new Two-Way players. Max Shulga and Amari Williams are both rookies, both selected by Boston in the Second Round of the 2025 NBA Draft. After a successful career at Kentucky, Williams was taken 46th overall, while Shulga, a VCU product, was selected at no. 57. Ron Harper, Jr. is currently on the third Two-Way slot. Harper started last season with Maine on a standard G League contract before signing a Two-Way contract with the Detroit Pistons in January, finishing the season with the Pistons.

NEW-LOOK CELTICS: Only three players are back with the Maine Celtics from last year's squad. Two-Way guard Ron Harper, Jr. is back with Maine after playing 14 games for the Celtics last season, averaging 17.4 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 2.7 assists per game. Harper earned a GATORADE Call-Up, signing a Two-Way Contract with the Detroit Pistons. Forward Hason Ward returns for a second season – in his rookie campaign, Ward was the only player to play in all 50 games in 2024-25. And Kameron Warrens returns to the Celtics for 2025-26 – the guard played 21 games for Maine last season.

PLAYOFF PROWESS: Maine enters 2025-26 with back-to-back appearances in the Eastern Conference Finals of the NBA G League Playoffs. The Celtics lost to Osceola in the ECF last season, and Maine reached the NBA G League Finals for the first time ever in 2024-25, falling to Oklahoma City in three games.

FIRST NBA POINTS: Two-Way big man Amari Williams got in the score sheet for the first time in Boston's loss to Houston on Nov. 1. The rookie got late minutes and scored his first NBA bucket, a floater in the paint. Williams is expected to be in Maine's lineup tonight in Greensboro.

REPLACING THE MVP: For the first time since the 2021-22 season, the Maine Celtics are without JD Davison. The point guard played three seasons for Maine, all on a Two-Way Contract. Davison was named NBA G League MVP last season, averaging 25.6 points, 5.0 rebounds, and 7.8 assists per game. Davison finished his time in Maine as the franchise leader in almost every statistical category, including points (2,677), assists (1,065), steals (159), field goals (994), minutes (4,475), and games played (133). He is also the franchise playoff leader in most categories. Davison finished last season on a full contract with Boston. He was waived in the off-season and is currently on a Two-Way Contract with the Houston Rockets.

PHIL PRESSEY

Overall Record: 10-8 (.556)

Head Coach

Seasons as Head Coach in G League: 1

Seasons as Head Coach with Maine: 1

Head Coach - Phil Pressey

On July 2, 2025, Phil Pressey made history, accepting the role of Head Coach for the 2025-26 NBA G League season. Pressey becomes the first head coach in franchise history to also play for Maine during his career. The former NBA guard played at the Portland Expo while on assignment from the Boston Celtics during the 2014-15 season.

"I'd like to thank Brad Stevens, Joe Mazzulla, and the entire Celtics organization for believing in me and giving me a chance to grow, lead, and develop," said Pressey. "I'm grateful for the opportunity and I will give my all to this team. The community of Portland is amazing, and I remember my time as a player was unforgettable at the Expo. My goal is to instill winning habits into every player who suits up for the Maine Celtics."

Pressey began his coaching career in 2022 as an assistant coach with his alma mater, the University of Missouri. He then joined the Boston Celtics in 2023 where he has been ever since, working as a Player Development coach.

A three-year standout at Missouri, Pressey played in 148 career NBA games over three seasons, 125 of those with the Celtics from 2013-15. In that time, he averaged 3.1 points, 1.9 rebounds, and 2.9 assists per game. Additionally, he played in 78 career G League games from 2014-17.

"Phil is a dedicated coach who has been instrumental in our player development over the last two seasons," said Boston Celtics Head Coach Joe Mazzulla. "I am looking forward to seeing him grow as a coach and leader. He shows great energy and a willingness to learn. His personality and communication will be a gift to his players."

"We're excited to welcome Phil to the Maine Celtics as our new head coach," said Maine Celtics General Manager Jarell Christian. "Phil's journey – from playing in the NBA and NBA G League to developing talent with the Boston Celtics – makes him the perfect fit to lead our team and connect with the Maine community. We can't wait for our fans to get to know him and see the energy and passion he brings to the game."

Pressey is the son of former NBA player Paul Pressey, who also was an assistant coach for seven NBA teams from 1992-2016.
