MAINE CELTICS NOTES

BIG ROAD COMEBACK: The Celtics won their 5th straight game in dramatic fashion, erasing a 20-point second half deficit for a 114-106 win at Wisconsin on Jan. 14. Maine trailed 81-61 with 6:41 to go in the 3rd quarter, and out-scored Wisconsin 53-25 the rest of the way to win the game. Kendall Brown led Maine with 25 points, a season high, including 5-5 from the floor in the 4th quarter. Jalen Bridges added 22 points including 6-12 from three-point range. Newcomer Tosan Evbuomwan recorded 21 points in his Maine Celtics debut, scoring 10 of those in the 4th quarter. Maine went 12-17 (70.6%) from the floor in the 4th quarter, out-scoring Wisconsin 29-15. The Celtics only turned the ball over 13 times.

VETERAN JOINS CELTICS: Maine has added NBA and NBA G League veteran Tosan Evbuomwan to the roster. Maine had previously acquired Evbuomwan's Returning Player Rights in an earlier trade – he was recently waived from his Two-Way contract by the New York Knicks. Evbuomwan has played in 50 career NBA games over the past three seasons, and 77 career NBA G League games. This season, he played in 12 games for Westchester, averaging 17.7 points, 6.6 rebounds, and 3.8 assists per game. To make room for Evbuomwan, the Celtics waived Rahsool Diggins Jr.

FOUR IN A ROW: The Maine Celtics erased a 17-point deficit to take down Salt Lake City on Jan. 9, sweeping the two-game set with the Stars by a final of 107-102. Amari Williams led the way with 22 points on an efficient 6-9 shooting, while Kendall Brown and Ron Harper Jr. each scored 13 in the win, the Celtics' fourth straight. Hayden Gray led the bench with an all-around game, finishing with 13 points, 7 rebounds, 10 assists, and 5 steals. Maine shot 52% (39-75) from the floor in the victory, while returning to norm beyond the arc, going 10-31 (32.3%). Maine out-rebounded Salt Lake City 45-41.

CELTICS SMACK STARS: Jalen Bridges scored 21 of his 23 points in the first half, as Maine surged to an early lead and cruised to victory, taking down Salt Lake City on Jan. 8, 102-94. The Celtics shot 36.7% (11-30) as a team from three-point range in the win, their third straight. Bridges led all scorers, while Amari Williams recorded his 8th double-double of the season and fourth straight, finishing with 19 points and 11 rebounds. Kendall Brown finished with 17 points including crucial buckets in the 4th quarter to put the Stars away. Salt Lake City shot just 20% (6-30) from three-point range.

OT THRILLER: Jalen Bridges nailed a corner three – his only made three of the game – and the Maine Celtics walked off with a 112-109 overtime win over Capital City on Jan. 3. Bridges three ended the game in the Final Target Score extra frame. After a career high 30 points the night before, Amari Williams followed that up with another career performance, finishing with 33 points and 16 rebounds, both career highs. Max Shulga added 16 points in the win, while Bridges scored 15. The Celtics out-rebounded the Go-Go 49-35. Maine shot just 21% (7-32) from three-point range.

WILLIAMS' CAREER NIGHT: Maine big man Amari Williams recorded his first-ever 30-point performance, dropping a career high 30 points and grabbing 14 rebounds in Maine's 108-100 win over Noblesville on Jan. 2. Playing without Ron Harper Jr., the Celtics never trailed in the game and led by as many as 25. Jalen Bridges and Kendall Brown each scored 19 points for Maine, while Kameron Warrens added 11 off the bench. Maine out-rebounded Noblesville 46-35. With the win, the Celtics snapped a three game losing streak, getting back in the win column in the Regular Season, now at 2-4.

NINE IN A ROW! The Maine Celtics are currently under a franchise record nine-game winning streak after the Dec. 10 come-from-behind win at Capital City, 112-101. Down by as many as 11 in the first half, Maine roared back in the 3rd quarter, ending the period on a 26-2 run to take the lead and cruise to victory. The Celtics out-scored the Go-Go 34-16 in the 3rd, making 6 three-pointers. Max Shulga led the Celtics with a career-high 25 points, while Keon Johnson contributed a strong second half to finish with 21 points, 9 rebounds, and 6 assists. Hason Ward and Stefan Todorovic each scored 14 in the win, while Aaron Scott added 10 points off the bench. Maine out-rebounded Capital City 49-32 and won the game despite forcing only 8 Go-Go turnovers.

CELTICS ADD NBA VET: Maine acquired guard Keon Johnson off of waivers on Dec. 1. The 21st overall pick in the 2021 NBA Draft, Johnson has played in 161 career NBA games, including 79 for Brooklyn last season. He averaged 10.6 points per game for the Nets in 2024-25. Johnson has also played in 57 G League games in his career, 41 of those with Long Island in 2023-24.

HARPER JR. NAMED POW: Maine Celtics Two-Way guard Ron Harper Jr. was named NBA G League Player of the Week for games played Nov. 17-23. Harper led Maine to a perfect record in the week, averaging 36.0 points per game. He threw in a career-high 46 points in the Nov. 21 win over Delaware, the fifth most in a single game in franchise history.

ASSISTS ASSIST BIG COMEBACK: The Maine Celtics dished out a Franchise Record 43 assists in Maine's come-from-behind 129-119 win over Delaware on Nov. 23. The Celtics trailed by as many as 23 points in the first half before roaring back.

HARPER GOES OFF TO CARRY CELTICS: Ron Harper Jr. dropped a career-high 46 points including the game-winner with :01 remaining to lift Maine to a 113-111 win over Delaware on Nov. 21. With 46 points, Ron Harper Jr. ties JD Davison for the 5th most points in a single game in franchise history. Fresh off a 19-point 4th quarter in his previous game, Harper scored 27 in the first half and 39 points through three quarters, including a buzzer-beating three to end the 3rd. Harper scored the final 7 points for Maine, and also added a career-high 8 assists and 7 rebounds. Harper went 16-26 from the floor and 7-14 from three-point range.

THAT WAS FAST: The Maine Celtics have their first GATORADE Call-Up to the NBA of the season. Wendell Moore Jr. signed a Two-Way contract with the Detroit Pistons on Nov. 10. Moore averaged 21.5 points over Maine's first two games of the season, including a career-best 28 point performance on Nov. 7. The NBA veteran has played 90 games in his career for Minnesota, Charlotte, and Detroit. Last season, two Maine Celtics earned call-ups – Ron Harper Jr. (Two-Way, Detroit) and Phillip Wheeler (10-day, Philadelphia).

PRESSEY MAKES DEBUT: Maine Celtics new head coach Phil Pressey made his head coaching debut Nov. 7 at Greensboro. Pressey, who served as a player development coach in Boston last season, was named 11th head coach in Maine franchise history this fall, replacing Tyler Lashbrook, who left to accept a full-time assistant coach position with the Boston Celtics. Pressey is the first Maine head coach who also played for the franchise – the former point guard played one game for the then-Maine Red Claws during the 2014-15 season, scoring 34 points. Former Maine head coach Jarell Christian remains general manager of Maine for a fourth season.

NEW TWO-WAYS: The Maine Celtics have three new Two-Way players. Max Shulga and Amari Williams are both rookies, both selected by Boston in the Second Round of the 2025 NBA Draft. After a successful career at Kentucky, Williams was taken 46th overall, while Shulga, a VCU product, was selected at no. 57. Ron Harper, Jr. is currently on the third Two-Way slot. Harper started last season with Maine on a standard G League contract before signing a Two-Way contract with the Detroit Pistons in January, finishing the season with the Pistons.

NEW-LOOK CELTICS: Only three players are back with the Maine Celtics from last year's squad. Two-Way guard Ron Harper, Jr. is back with Maine after playing 14 games for the Celtics last season, averaging 17.4 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 2.7 assists per game. Harper earned a GATORADE Call-Up, signing a Two-Way Contract with the Detroit Pistons. Forward Hason Ward returns for a second season – in his rookie campaign, Ward was the only player to play in all 50 games in 2024-25. And Kameron Warrens returns to the Celtics for 2025-26 – the guard played 21 games for Maine last season.

PLAYOFF PROWESS: Maine enters 2025-26 with back-to-back appearances in the Eastern Conference Finals of the NBA G League Playoffs. The Celtics lost to Osceola in the ECF last season, and Maine reached the NBA G League Finals for the first time ever in 2024-25, falling to Oklahoma City in three games.

FIRST NBA POINTS: Two-Way big man Amari Williams got in the score sheet for the first time in Boston's loss to Houston on Nov. 1. The rookie got late minutes and scored his first NBA bucket, a floater in the paint. Williams is expected to be in Maine's lineup tonight in Greensboro.

REPLACING THE MVP: For the first time since the 2021-22 season, the Maine Celtics are without JD Davison. The point guard played three seasons for Maine, all on a Two-Way Contract. Davison was named NBA G League MVP last season, averaging 25.6 points, 5.0 rebounds, and 7.8 assists per game. Davison finished his time in Maine as the franchise leader in almost every statistical category, including points (2,677), assists (1,065), steals (159), field goals (994), minutes (4,475), and games played (133). He is also the franchise playoff leader in most categories. Davison finished last season on a full contract with Boston. He was waived in the off-season and is currently on a Two-Way Contract with the Houston Rockets.

PHIL PRESSEY	Head Coach
Overall Record: 15-9 (.625)	Seasons as Head Coach in G League: 1 Seasons as Head Coach with Maine: 1

Head Coach - Phil Pressey

On July 2, 2025, Phil Pressey made history, accepting the role of Head Coach for the 2025-26 NBA G League season. Pressey becomes the first head coach in franchise history to also play for Maine during his career. The former NBA guard played at the Portland Expo while on assignment from the Boston Celtics during the 2014-15 season.

"I'd like to thank Brad Stevens, Joe Mazzulla, and the entire Celtics organization for believing in me and giving me a chance to grow, lead, and develop," said Pressey. "I'm grateful for the opportunity and I will give my all to this team. The community of Portland is amazing, and I remember my time as a player was unforgettable at the Expo. My goal is to instill winning habits into every player who suits up for the Maine Celtics."

Pressey began his coaching career in 2022 as an assistant coach with his alma mater, the University of Missouri. He then joined the Boston Celtics in 2023 where he has been ever since, working as a Player Development coach. A three-year standout at Missouri, Pressey played in 148 career NBA games over three seasons, 125 of those with the Celtics from 2013-15. In that time, he averaged 3.1 points, 1.9 rebounds, and 2.9 assists per game. Additionally, he played in 78 career G League games from 2014-17.

"Phil is a dedicated coach who has been instrumental in our player development over the last two seasons," said Boston Celtics Head Coach Joe Mazzulla. "I am looking forward to seeing him grow as a coach and leader. He shows great energy and a willingness to learn. His personality and communication will be a gift to his players."

"We're excited to welcome Phil to the Maine Celtics as our new head coach," said Maine Celtics General Manager Jarell Christian. "Phil's journey – from playing in the NBA and NBA G League to developing talent with the Boston Celtics – makes him the perfect fit to lead our team and connect with the Maine community. We can't wait for our fans to get to know him and see the energy and passion he brings to the game."

Pressey is the son of former NBA player Paul Pressey, who also was an assistant coach for seven NBA teams from 1992-2016.

MAINE CELTICS

Ron Harper Jr.

Guard – 6'5 – 233 pounds – Age: 25 – Two-Way Player – College: Rutgers

Ron Harper Jr. Signed a Two-Way Contract with the Boston Celtics on October 16, 2025. Harper Jr. appeared in three preseason games with the Celtics, averaging 4.3 points, 0.7 rebounds and 1.0 assists in 10.6 minutes per game. Harper Jr. shot 40.0% from the field, including 42.9% from three. The 25-year-old guard will embark on his fourth season in the NBA, most recently playing for the Detroit Pistons on a Two-Way Contract. He appeared in one game for the Pistons last season, recording four points, seven rebounds, and two assists in 17 minutes of work. Harper Jr. has appeared in 11 NBA games total during his career, averaging 2.2 points, 1.3 rebounds, and 0.6 assists. Prior to signing with the Pistons, Harper Jr. played 14 games with the Maine Celtics during the 2024-25 NBA G League season. He averaged 14.1 points, 2.7 rebounds and 1.4 assists in 24.6 minutes per contest in a Maine uniform. When Harper Jr. inked a deal with Detroit, he became the 22nd NBA Call-Up in franchise history. Prior to his time in Detroit and Portland, the New Jersey native spent two seasons with the Toronto Raptors organization as a Two-Way player. Harper Jr. is the son of Ron Harper, a five-time NBA champion. His brother, Dylan Harper, was selected with the second overall pick in the 2025 NBA Draft by the San Antonio Spurs.

Max Shulga

Guard – 6'4 – 210 pounds – Age: 23 – Two-Way Player – College: VCU

Max Shulga was drafted by the Boston Celtics with the 57th overall pick in the 2025 NBA Draft. The rookie guard appeared in three preseason games with Boston, averaging 1.3 points, 1.0 rebounds and 0.7 assists in 3.1 minutes per game. Shulga played five Summer League contests for the Celtics, posting 5.0 points, 1.6 rebounds, and 3.8 assists in 21.0 minutes per game. Shulga also averaged 1.8 steals per game during Summer League. Shulga played his first three collegiate seasons at Utah State University, where he was teammates with current Boston Celtics center Neemias Queta. He played his final two collegiate seasons at Virginia Commonwealth, where Shulga was named the Atlantic 10 Conference Player of the Year after averaging 15.0 points, 5.9 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 1.8 steals per game during his senior campaign. Born in Kiev, Ukraine, Shulga is the eighth Ukrainian to be drafted to the NBA and is the third Celtic, joining Svi Mykhailiuk and Vitaly Potapenko.

Amari Williams

Center – 6'11 – 250 pounds – Age: 23 – Two-Way Player – College: Kentucky

Amari Williams was selected by the Boston Celtics with the 46th overall pick in the 2025 NBA Draft. The rookie appeared in three preseason games with Boston, averaging 2.0 points, 2.3 rebounds, and 0.7 assists in 5.3 minutes per game. Williams played in four Summer League contests, averaging 6.3 points, 5.0 rebounds and 1.8 assists in 17.6 minutes per game. Williams spent his first four collegiate seasons at Drexel University, where he became the first player in CAA history to win three conference Defensive Player of the Year Awards. Williams concluded his collegiate career at the University of Kentucky, where the forward averaged 10.9 points, 8.5 rebounds and 3.2 assists on 56% shooting from the field. Defensively, he averaged 1.2 blocks per game for the Wildcats. Williams is the first British-born player in Celtics history.

Pedro Bradshaw

Forward - 6'7 - 180 pounds - Age: 27 - College: Bellarmine

How Acquired: Trade

On January 2, 2026, the Maine Celtics acquired Pedro Bradshaw in a trade with the Salt Lake City Stars. Bradshaw brings over 125 games of NBA G League experience to the Celtics. He played overseas in both Australia and Germany last season, averaging 10.6 points and 5.4 rebounds in 26.9 minutes per game. In his last G League season, Bradshaw played 45 games for the Indiana Mad Ants in 2023-24, averaging 8.6 points, 6.2 rebounds, and 1.7 assists per game. Bradshaw has now played on four G League teams and has surpassed 20 points in a G League game six times in his career. During his college days at Bellarmine University, the 6'7 forward averaged 15.9 points, 6.9 rebounds, and 2.5 assists per game, earning Atlantic Sun First Team All-Conference honors during his junior season in 2021.

Jalen Bridges
