MAINE CELTICS NOTES

OT HEARTBREAKER: Grand Rapids erased a 22-point deficit to take down Maine in stunning fashion, 122-118 in overtime. With the Final Target Score of 121 points, the Celtics had a shot to win the game in OT, but could not convert. Ron Harper Jr. led the way with 37 points in the loss. Jalen Bridges and Aaron Scott each scored 16 points, while Kendall Brown added 15 points. Maine shot 37.5% (39-104) from the floor and 36.4% (20-55) from three-point range. The Celtics drop to 9-7 in the Regular Season, dropping to 8th place in the Eastern Conference.

CELTS WIN SHORT-HANDED SHOOTOUT: Playing with just nine available players, the Maine Celtics pulled out a gutty win with a massive offensive out-put, beating Greensboro 147-138. Tosan Evbuomwan and Max Shulga led the way with massive performances – Evbuomwan scored 21 in the first half and finished with 34 points and 10 assists; Shulga scored 23 in the second half to finish with 33 points and 13 assists – this marks just the 9th time in franchise history that two Maine Celtics scored 30+ points in the same game. Jalen Bridges added 24 points as eight Maine players finished in double figures. This marked the first game where Maine surpassed 140 points since Nov. 20, 2022. 147 points is the 4th highest output in franchise history, and 285 combined points is the 5th most in a Maine Celtics game ever. Maine shot 54.4% (49-90) from the floor, a season high. Greensboro shot 56.7% (55-97).

SWARM STING CELTICS: Greensboro jumped out to an early lead and Maine could not overcome it, falling on Jan. 23 by a score of 122-112. The Celtics trailed by as many as 16 points, but got it to two possessions in the 4th quarter. Max Shulga led Maine with 21 points and 8 assists, while Hason Ward tied a career-high with 18 points. Pedro Bradshaw recorded 16 points to lead the bench, while Tosan Evbuomwan added 15 in the loss. Maine was out-rebounded 53-37, and Greensboro shot 54% (47-87) from the field and 44.4% (12-27) from three-point range. The Celtics are now 10-3 at the Portland Expo.

WILLIAMS HELPS CELTICS: Two-Way center Amari Williams started Jan. 23 at the Portland Expo. Immediately after morning shootaround, Boston flew him to Brooklyn to dress that night against the Nets. Williams wound up playing 5 minutes in overtime and double OT, scoring a go-ahead three-point play and swatting a crucial block to help the Celtics beat Brooklyn 130-126. Williams also had a key assist earlier in OT.

THE GREAT EIGHT: Playing with no Two-Ways and only eight active players, the Maine Celtics defeated College Park on Jan. 21, 121-115. All eight Celtics finished in double figures. Hayden Gray led the way with a near quadruple-double, finishing with 23 points, 8 rebounds, 11 assists, and 8 steals. Stef Todorovic also scored 23 in the win, while Tosan Evbuomwan was near a triple-double as well, finishing with 15 points, 10 rebounds, and 9 assists. Pedro Bradshaw recorded a 15 point-10 rebound double-double. Hason Ward added 13 points, while Jalen Bridges and Aaron Scott each scored 11 points. Kameron Warrens added 10 in the victory. Maine had won 7 of its last 8 games.

VETERAN JOINS CELTICS: Maine has added NBA and NBA G League veteran Tosan Evbuomwan to the roster. Maine had previously acquired Evbuomwan's Returning Player Rights in an earlier trade – he was recently waived from his Two-Way contract by the New York Knicks. Evbuomwan has played in 50 career NBA games over the past three seasons, and 77 career NBA G League games. This season, he played in 12 games for Westchester, averaging 17.7 points, 6.6 rebounds, and 3.8 assists per game. To make room for Evbuomwan, the Celtics waived Rahsool Diggins Jr.

NINE IN A ROW! The Maine Celtics were under a franchise record nine-game winning streak after the Dec. 10 come-from-behind win at Capital City, 112-101. Down by as many as 11 in the first half, Maine roared back in the 3rd quarter, ending the period on a 26-2 run to take the lead and cruise to victory. The Celtics out-scored the Go-Go 34-16 in the 3rd, making 6 three-pointers. Max Shulga led the Celtics with a career-high 25 points, while Keon Johnson contributed a strong second half to finish with 21 points, 9 rebounds, and 6 assists. Hason Ward and Stefan Todorovic each scored 14 in the win, while Aaron Scott added 10 points off the bench. Maine out-rebounded Capital City 49-32 and won the game despite forcing only 8 Go-Go turnovers.

CELTICS ADD NBA VET: Maine acquired guard Keon Johnson off of waivers on Dec. 1. The 21st overall pick in the 2021 NBA Draft, Johnson has played in 161 career NBA games, including 79 for Brooklyn last season. He averaged 10.6 points per game for the Nets in 2024-25. Johnson has also played in 57 G League games in his career, 41 of those with Long Island in 2023-24.

HARPER JR. NAMED POW: Maine Celtics Two-Way guard Ron Harper Jr. was named NBA G League Player of the Week for games played Nov. 17-23. Harper led Maine to a perfect record in the week, averaging 36.0 points per game. He threw in a career-high 46 points in the Nov. 21 win over Delaware, the fifth most in a single game in franchise history.

ASSISTS ASSIST BIG COMEBACK: The Maine Celtics dished out a Franchise Record 43 assists in Maine's come-from-behind 129-119 win over Delaware on Nov. 23. The Celtics trailed by as many as 23 points in the first half before roaring back.

HARPER GOES OFF TO CARRY CELTICS: Ron Harper Jr. dropped a career-high 46 points including the game-winner with :01 remaining to lift Maine to a 113-111 win over Delaware on Nov. 21. With 46 points, Ron Harper Jr. ties JD Davison for the 5th most points in a single game in franchise history. Fresh off a 19-point 4th quarter in his previous game, Harper scored 27 in the first half and 39 points through three quarters, including a buzzer-beating three to end the 3rd. Harper scored the final 7 points for Maine, and also added a career-high 8 assists and 7 rebounds. Harper went 16-26 from the floor and 7-14 from three-point range.

THAT WAS FAST: The Maine Celtics have their first GATORADE Call-Up to the NBA of the season. Wendell Moore Jr. signed a Two-Way contract with the Detroit Pistons on Nov. 10. Moore averaged 21.5 points over Maine's first two games of the season, including a career-best 28 point performance on Nov. 7. The NBA veteran has played 90 games in his career for Minnesota, Charlotte, and Detroit. Last season, two Maine Celtics earned call-ups – Ron Harper Jr. (Two-Way, Detroit) and Phillip Wheeler (10-day, Philadelphia).

PRESSEY MAKES DEBUT: Maine Celtics new head coach Phil Pressey made his head coaching debut Nov. 7 at Greensboro. Pressey, who served as a player development coach in Boston last season, was named 11th head coach in Maine franchise history this fall, replacing Tyler Lashbrook, who left to accept a full-time assistant coach position with the Boston Celtics. Pressey is the first Maine head coach who also played for the franchise – the former point guard played one game for the then-Maine Red Claws during the 2014-15 season, scoring 34 points. Former Maine head coach Jarell Christian remains general manager of Maine for a fourth season.

NEW TWO-WAYS: The Maine Celtics have three new Two-Way players. Max Shulga and Amari Williams are both rookies, both selected by Boston in the Second Round of the 2025 NBA Draft. After a successful career at Kentucky, Williams was taken 46th overall, while Shulga, a VCU product, was selected at no. 57. Ron Harper, Jr. is currently on the third Two-Way slot. Harper started last season with Maine on a standard G League contract before signing a Two-Way contract with the Detroit Pistons in January, finishing the season with the Pistons.

NEW-LOOK CELTICS: Only three players are back with the Maine Celtics from last year's squad. Two-Way guard Ron Harper, Jr. is back with Maine after playing 14 games for the Celtics last season, averaging 17.4 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 2.7 assists per game. Harper earned a GATORADE Call-Up, signing a Two-Way Contract with the Detroit Pistons. Forward Hason Ward returns for a second season – in his rookie campaign, Ward was the only player to play in all 50 games in 2024-25. And Kameron Warrens returns to the Celtics for 2025-26 – the guard played 21 games for Maine last season.

PLAYOFF PROWESS: Maine enters 2025-26 with back-to-back appearances in the Eastern Conference Finals of the NBA G League Playoffs. The Celtics lost to Osceola in the ECF last season, and Maine reached the NBA G League Finals for the first time ever in 2024-25, falling to Oklahoma City in three games.

REPLACING THE MVP: For the first time since the 2021-22 season, the Maine Celtics are without JD Davison. The point guard played three seasons for Maine, all on a Two-Way Contract. Davison was named NBA G League MVP last season, averaging 25.6 points, 5.0 rebounds, and 7.8 assists per game. Davison finished his time in Maine as the franchise leader in almost every statistical category, including points (2,677), assists (1,065), steals (159), field goals (994), minutes (4,475), and games played (133). He is also the franchise playoff leader in most categories. Davison finished last season on a full contract with Boston. He was waived in the off-season and is currently on a Two-Way Contract with the Houston Rockets.

PHIL PRESSEY	Head Coach
Overall Record: 18-12 (.600)	Seasons as Head Coach in G League: 1 Seasons as Head Coach with Maine: 1

Head Coach - Phil Pressey

On July 2, 2025, Phil Pressey made history, accepting the role of Head Coach for the 2025-26 NBA G League season. Pressey becomes the first head coach in franchise history to also play for Maine during his career. The former NBA guard played at the Portland Expo while on assignment from the Boston Celtics during the 2014-15 season.

"I'd like to thank Brad Stevens, Joe Mazzulla, and the entire Celtics organization for believing in me and giving me a chance to grow, lead, and develop," said Pressey. "I'm grateful for the opportunity and I will give my all to this team. The community of Portland is amazing, and I remember my time as a player was unforgettable at the Expo. My goal is to instill winning habits into every player who suits up for the Maine Celtics."

Pressey began his coaching career in 2022 as an assistant coach with his alma mater, the University of Missouri. He then joined the Boston Celtics in 2023 where he has been ever since, working as a Player Development coach. A three-year standout at Missouri, Pressey played in 148 career NBA games over three seasons, 125 of those with the Celtics from 2013-15. In that time, he averaged 3.1 points, 1.9 rebounds, and 2.9 assists per game. Additionally, he played in 78 career G League games from 2014-17.

"Phil is a dedicated coach who has been instrumental in our player development over the last two seasons," said Boston Celtics Head Coach Joe Mazzulla. "I am looking forward to seeing him grow as a coach and leader. He shows great energy and a willingness to learn. His personality and communication will be a gift to his players."

"We're excited to welcome Phil to the Maine Celtics as our new head coach," said Maine Celtics General Manager Jarell Christian. "Phil's journey – from playing in the NBA and NBA G League to developing talent with the Boston Celtics – makes him the perfect fit to lead our team and connect with the Maine community. We can't wait for our fans to get to know him and see the energy and passion he brings to the game."

Pressey is the son of former NBA player Paul Pressey, who also was an assistant coach for seven NBA teams from 1992-2016.

MAINE CELTICS

Ron Harper Jr.

Guard – 6'5 – 233 pounds – Age: 25 – Two-Way Player – College: Rutgers

Ron Harper Jr. Signed a Two-Way Contract with the Boston Celtics on October 16, 2025. Harper Jr. appeared in three preseason games with the Celtics, averaging 4.3 points, 0.7 rebounds and 1.0 assists in 10.6 minutes per game. Harper Jr. shot 40.0% from the field, including 42.9% from three. The 25-year-old guard will embark on his fourth season in the NBA, most recently playing for the Detroit Pistons on a Two-Way Contract. He appeared in one game for the Pistons last season, recording four points, seven rebounds, and two assists in 17 minutes of work. Harper Jr. has appeared in 11 NBA games total during his career, averaging 2.2 points, 1.3 rebounds, and 0.6 assists. Prior to signing with the Pistons, Harper Jr. played 14 games with the Maine Celtics during the 2024-25 NBA G League season. He averaged 14.1 points, 2.7 rebounds and 1.4 assists in 24.6 minutes per contest in a Maine uniform. When Harper Jr. inked a deal with Detroit, he became the 22nd NBA Call-Up in franchise history. Prior to his time in Detroit and Portland, the New Jersey native spent two seasons with the Toronto Raptors organization as a Two-Way player. Harper Jr. is the son of Ron Harper, a five-time NBA champion. His brother, Dylan Harper, was selected with the second overall pick in the 2025 NBA Draft by the San Antonio Spurs.

Max Shulga

Guard – 6'4 – 210 pounds – Age: 23 – Two-Way Player – College: VCU
