MAINE CELTICS NOTES

SHORT-HANDED CELTICS STRUGGLE: With only eight dressed players, Maine was soundly defeated at Sioux Falls on Feb. 6, 134-112. Sioux Falls scored 81 points in the first half and never looked back. Sioux Falls shot 65.1% from the field and dished out 40 assists, both franchise record highs for a Maine opponent. The Skyforce led 45-35 after the 1st quarter, and shot 73.3% from the floor in the first half. Jalen Bridges led Maine, who only played seven players, with 25 points. Hayden Gray and Max Shulga each scored 23 points, with Gray adding 12 assists. Maine has 21 turnovers in the loss.

EVBUOMWAN EARNS CALL-UP: Tosan Evbuomwan has become the second Maine Celtics player to earn a GATORADE Call-Up to the NBA this season, signing a Two-Way contract with the Charlotte Hornets on Feb. 6. Evbuomwan is the 25th Maine player all-time to earn a call-up. Evbuomwan joined Maine on Jan. 14. In nine games with the Celtics, he averaged 19.4 points, 5.9 rebounds, and 4.7 assists in 35.2 minutes per game. He recorded three double-doubles for Maine, including a 34 point-10 assist performance on Jan. 25 vs. Greensboro. Evbuomwan started the season on a Two-Way with the New York Knicks. He has played in 50 career NBA games.

CELTICS CONVERT WILLIAMS: Big man Amari Williams is no longer on a Two-Way contract. The Boston Celtics announced on Feb. 5 that the team has signed the rookie to a multi-year contract. Williams has played in 21 games for Maine this season, averaging 15.1 points, 11.4 rebounds, 5.0 assists, and 1.8 blocks per game. Williams has recorded two triple-doubles and 10 double-doubles with Maine this season. In Boston, Williams has appeared in 13 games, averaging 1.7 points and 2.1 rebounds in 8.2 minutes per game.

BOSTON ADDS TONJE AT DEADLINE: The Boston Celtics were very active at the NBA trade deadline. In one of four trades, the Celtics acquired Two-Way player John Tonje and a future 2nd Rounder from the Utah Jazz in exchange for Chris Boucher. Tonje has played in 32 G League games for Salt Lake City this season, averaging 18.0 points, 4.1 rebounds, 1.4 assists, and 1.0 steals. Tonje was selected by the Jazz with the 53rd overall pick in the 2025 NBA Draft after five collegiate seasons. Tonje scored 27 points and grabbed 12 rebounds for Salt Lake City in their game at Maine on Jan. 9.

OT THRILLER: Down four with 1:20 to go, the Maine Celtics got a big late bucket from Amari Williams to force overtime, then Williams won the game with a driving lay-up, as Maine stole a 117-116 OT victory at Sioux Falls on Feb. 4. Williams was near a triple-double, finishing with 24 points, 12 rebounds, and 8 assists. Hayden Gray added 23 points and 10 assists, while Tosan Evbuomwan and Jalen Bridges each scored 19 in the win. Maine won despite being out-shot, out-rebounded, and out-assisted by Sioux Falls. The Skyforce had three possessions to win the game in the Final Target Score period, but came up empty each time. The last time, off of an offensive goaltending call, Williams drove to the basket and scored to win the game. The Feb. 4 win was Maine's first win at Sanford Pentagon since Dec. 28, 2012, snapping a 6-game losing streak to Sioux Falls on the road.

WILLIAMS HELPS CELTICS: Two-Way center Amari Williams started Jan. 23 at the Portland Expo. Immediately after morning shootaround, Boston flew him to Brooklyn to dress that night against the Nets. Williams wound up playing 5 minutes in overtime and double OT, scoring a go-ahead three-point play and swatting a crucial block to help the Celtics beat Brooklyn 130-126. Williams also had a key assist earlier in OT.

NINE IN A ROW! The Maine Celtics were under a franchise record nine-game winning streak after the Dec. 10 come-from-behind win at Capital City, 112-101. Down by as many as 11 in the first half, Maine roared back in the 3rd quarter, ending the period on a 26-2 run to take the lead and cruise to victory. The Celtics out-scored the Go-Go 34-16 in the 3rd, making 6 three-pointers. Max Shulga led the Celtics with a career-high 25 points, while Keon Johnson contributed a strong second half to finish with 21 points, 9 rebounds, and 6 assists. Hason Ward and Stefan Todorovic each scored 14 in the win, while Aaron Scott added 10 points off the bench. Maine out-rebounded Capital City 49-32 and won the game despite forcing only 8 Go-Go turnovers.

CELTICS ADD NBA VET: Maine acquired guard Keon Johnson off of waivers on Dec. 1. The 21st overall pick in the 2021 NBA Draft, Johnson has played in 161 career NBA games, including 79 for Brooklyn last season. He averaged 10.6 points per game for the Nets in 2024-25. Johnson has also played in 57 G League games in his career, 41 of those with Long Island in 2023-24.

HARPER JR. NAMED POW: Maine Celtics Two-Way guard Ron Harper Jr. was named NBA G League Player of the Week for games played Nov. 17-23. Harper led Maine to a perfect record in the week, averaging 36.0 points per game. He threw in a career-high 46 points in the Nov. 21 win over Delaware, the fifth most in a single game in franchise history.

ASSISTS ASSIST BIG COMEBACK: The Maine Celtics dished out a Franchise Record 43 assists in Maine’s come-from-behind 129-119 win over Delaware on Nov. 23. The Celtics trailed by as many as 23 points in the first half before roaring back.

HARPER GOES OFF TO CARRY CELTICS: Ron Harper Jr. dropped a career-high 46 points including the game-winner with :01 remaining to lift Maine to a 113-111 win over Delaware on Nov. 21. With 46 points, Ron Harper Jr. ties JD Davison for the 5th most points in a single game in franchise history. Fresh off a 19-point 4th quarter in his previous game, Harper scored 27 in the first half and 39 points through three quarters, including a buzzer-beating three to end the 3rd. Harper scored the final 7 points for Maine, and also added a career-high 8 assists and 7 rebounds. Harper went 16-26 from the floor and 7-14 from three-point range.

THAT WAS FAST: The Maine Celtics have their first GATORADE Call-Up to the NBA of the season. Wendell Moore Jr. signed a Two-Way contract with the Detroit Pistons on Nov. 10. Moore averaged 21.5 points over Maine’s first two games of the season, including a career-best 28 point performance on Nov. 7. The NBA veteran has played 90 games in his career for Minnesota, Charlotte, and Detroit. Last season, two Maine Celtics earned call-ups – Ron Harper Jr. (Two-Way, Detroit) and Phillip Wheeler (10-day, Philadelphia).

PRESSEY MAKES DEBUT: Maine Celtics new head coach Phil Pressey made his head coaching debut Nov. 7 at Greensboro. Pressey, who served as a player development coach in Boston last season, was named 11th head coach in Maine franchise history this fall, replacing Tyler Lashbrook, who left to accept a full-time assistant coach position with the Boston Celtics. Pressey is the first Maine head coach who also played for the franchise – the former point guard played one game for the then-Maine Red Claws during the 2014-15 season, scoring 34 points. Former Maine head coach Jarell Christian remains general manager of Maine for a fourth season.

NEW-LOOK CELTICS: Only three players are back with the Maine Celtics from last year’s squad. Two-Way guard Ron Harper, Jr. is back with Maine after playing 14 games for the Celtics last season, averaging 17.4 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 2.7 assists per game. Harper earned a GATORADE Call-Up, signing a Two-Way Contract with the Detroit Pistons. Forward Hason Ward returns for a second season – in his rookie campaign, Ward was the only player to play in all 50 games in 2024-25. And Kameron Warrens returns to the Celtics for 2025-26 – the guard played 21 games for Maine last season.

PLAYOFF PROWESS: Maine enters 2025-26 with back-to-back appearances in the Eastern Conference Finals of the NBA G League Playoffs. The Celtics lost to Osceola in the ECF last season, and Maine reached the NBA G League Finals for the first time ever in 2024-25, falling to Oklahoma City in three games.

REPLACING THE MVP: For the first time since the 2021-22 season, the Maine Celtics are without JD Davison. The point guard played three seasons for Maine, all on a Two-Way Contract. Davison was named NBA G League MVP last season, averaging 25.6 points, 5.0 rebounds, and 7.8 assists per game. Davison finished his time in Maine as the franchise leader in almost every statistical category, including points (2,677), assists (1,065), steals (159), field goals (994), minutes (4,475), and games played (133). He is also the franchise playoff leader in most categories. Davison finished last season on a full contract with Boston. He was waived in the off-season and is currently on a Two-Way Contract with the Houston Rockets.

PHIL PRESSEY	Head Coach
Overall Record: 20-14 (.588)	Seasons as Head Coach in G League: 1 Seasons as Head Coach with Maine: 1

Head Coach - Phil Pressey

On July 2, 2025, Phil Pressey made history, accepting the role of Head Coach for the 2025-26 NBA G League season. Pressey becomes the first head coach in franchise history to also play for Maine during his career. The former NBA guard played at the Portland Expo while on assignment from the Boston Celtics during the 2014-15 season.

"I'd like to thank Brad Stevens, Joe Mazzulla, and the entire Celtics organization for believing in me and giving me a chance to grow, lead, and develop," said Pressey. "I'm grateful for the opportunity and I will give my all to this team. The community of Portland is amazing, and I remember my time as a player was unforgettable at the Expo. My goal is to instill winning habits into every player who suits up for the Maine Celtics."

Pressey began his coaching career in 2022 as an assistant coach with his alma mater, the University of Missouri. He then joined the Boston Celtics in 2023 where he has been ever since, working as a Player Development coach. A three-year standout at Missouri, Pressey played in 148 career NBA games over three seasons, 125 of those with the Celtics from 2013-15. In that time, he averaged 3.1 points, 1.9 rebounds, and 2.9 assists per game. Additionally, he played in 78 career G League games from 2014-17.

"Phil is a dedicated coach who has been instrumental in our player development over the last two seasons," said Boston Celtics Head Coach Joe Mazzulla. "I am looking forward to seeing him grow as a coach and leader. He shows great energy and a willingness to learn. His personality and communication will be a gift to his players."

"We're excited to welcome Phil to the Maine Celtics as our new head coach," said Maine Celtics General Manager Jarell Christian. "Phil's journey – from playing in the NBA and NBA G League to developing talent with the Boston Celtics – makes him the perfect fit to lead our team and connect with the Maine community. We can't wait for our fans to get to know him and see the energy and passion he brings to the game."

Pressey is the son of former NBA player Paul Pressey, who also was an assistant coach for seven NBA teams from 1992-2016.
