MAINE CELTICS NOTES

WILD, WILD SHOOTOUT: Maine took the lead in the final minute, out-scoring Birmingham 45-40 in the 4th quarter, but fell on the road 144-143. 287 combined points is the second highest-scoring game in franchise history, and 144 points is the 7th most in a single game by Maine. Keon Johnson carried Maine with a career-high 43 points on 11-18 shooting, including a perfect 12-12 from the free throw line for 20 points. Johnson's 43 points is tied for the 8th highest individual scoring game in franchise history. 12 made free throws is the most in a game since Archie Goodwin went 11-11 on March 15, 2019. Hason Ward added a career-high 22 points on 9-10 shooting. Jalen Bridges scored 19 points, and Hank Morgan had 18 in the loss. The Celtics out-scored the Squadron 82-76 in the second half. Maine shot 57.8% (48-83) from the floor and 21-22 from the line. Birmingham shot 59.1% (52-88) from the field. Both offenses were clicking – there were 61 assists in the game. There were also 55 combined fouls in the contest.

CELTICS CONVERT SHULGA: Two-Way rookie Max Shulga has had his contract with the Boston Celtics converted to a standard NBA deal. Shulga joins Amari Williams as Two-Way players to get converted to the full roster this season. In 36 games for Maine this season (all starts), Shulga is averaging 15.7 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 6.6 assists per game. A Second Round (57th overall) selection by Boston in the 2025 NBA Draft, Shulga has played in four NBA games this season, and is yet to score in very limited action (1.5 minutes per game).

CELTICS STRIKE GOLD: Six Maine Celtics finished in double digits, leading a balanced attack in a 96-91 win over Grand Rapids on March 13 at the Portland Expo. Hayden Gray led the way with 18 points and 8 assists, while Keon Johnson led the bench with 17 points and a season-high 4 steals. John Tonje and Jalen Bridges each scored 16 points in the win – Maine led by as many as 20 points in the game. The Celtics have won 3 of their last 4 games.

TONJE TREMENDOUS: The Maine Celtics took down the top-ranked Osceola Magic on the road on March 10, 119-112 in a wire-to-wire win. The game was led by an all-time performance by John Tonje, who finished with a career-high 42 points including 8-10 from three-point range. Hank Morgan led the bench with a career-high 22 points, going 8-9 from the floor and 6-7 from downtown. Hason Ward added 14 points on a perfect 6-6 shooting. Maine shot 52.7% (39-74) from the floor in the victory and 50% (17-34) from three-point range. The Celtics have won two of their last three games.

CELTICS MAKE MOVES: Maine acquired big man Ebenezer Dowuona from the Available Player Pool. Dowuona, a rookie, has played in 13 NBA G League games this season between Texas and Oklahoma City. He is expected to be in uniform for tonight's game in Long Island. To make room on the roster for Dowuona, Maine traded Stefan Todorovic to Texas in exchange for the Returning Player Rights to Teafale Lenard Jr., who is not expected to immediately join the team. Todorovic played in 35 games for Maine this season, averaging 8.1 points, 2.8 rebounds, and 1.0 assists per game.

TEN-DAY TONJE: The Boston Celtics signed Two-Way guard John Tonje to a 10-day contract on Feb. 19. Tonje, who was recently acquired from the Utah Jazz, has played in two games for Maine, and is averaging 18.5 points per game this season in the NBA G League.

TATUM ASSIGNED TO MAINE: Boston Celtics star Jayson Tatum was assigned to the Maine Celtics for practice on Feb. 9 at the Auerbach Center in Boston. Tatum, along with Hugo Gonzalez, were assigned and immediately recalled after practice. This was Tatum's first career assignment to the NBA G League.

EVBUOMWAN EARNS CALL-UP: Tosan Evbuomwan has become the second Maine Celtics player to earn a GATORADE Call-Up to the NBA this season, signing a Two-Way contract with the Charlotte Hornets on Feb. 6. Evbuomwan is the 25th Maine player all-time to earn a call-up. Evbuomwan joined Maine on Jan. 14. In nine games with the Celtics, he averaged 19.4 points, 5.9 rebounds, and 4.7 assists in 35.2 minutes per game. He recorded three double-doubles for Maine, including a 34 point-10 assist performance on Jan. 25 vs. Greensboro. Evbuomwan started the season on a Two-Way with the New York Knicks. He has played in 50 career NBA games.

CELTICS CONVERT WILLIAMS: Big man Amari Williams is no longer on a Two-Way contract. The Boston Celtics announced on Feb. 5 that the team has signed the rookie to a multi-year contract. Williams has played in 21 games for Maine this season, averaging 15.1 points, 11.4 rebounds, 5.0 assists, and 1.8 blocks per game. Williams has recorded two triple-doubles and 10 double-doubles with Maine this season. In Boston, Williams has appeared in 13 games, averaging 1.7 points and 2.1 rebounds in 8.2 minutes per game.

BOSTON ADDS TONJE AT DEADLINE: The Boston Celtics were very active at the NBA trade deadline. In one of four trades, the Celtics acquired Two-Way player John Tonje and a future 2nd Rounder from the Utah Jazz in exchange for Chris Boucher. Tonje has played in 32 G League games for Salt Lake City this season, averaging 18.0 points, 4.1 rebounds, 1.4 assists, and 1.0 steals. Tonje was selected by the Jazz with the 53rd overall pick in the 2025 NBA Draft after five collegiate seasons. Tonje scored 27 points and grabbed 12 rebounds for Salt Lake City in their game at Maine on Jan. 9.

NINE IN A ROW! The Maine Celtics were under a franchise record nine-game winning streak after the Dec. 10 come-from-behind win at Capital City, 112-101. Down by as many as 11 in the first half, Maine roared back in the 3rd quarter, ending the period on a 26-2 run to take the lead and cruise to victory. The Celtics out-scored the Go-Go 34-16 in the 3rd, making 6 three-pointers. Max Shulga led the Celtics with a career-high 25 points, while Keon Johson contributed a strong second half to finish with 21 points, 9 rebounds, and 6 assists. Hason Ward and Stefan Todorovic each scored 14 in the win, while Aaron Scott added 10 points off the bench. Maine out-rebounded Capital City 49-32 and won the game despite forcing only 8 Go-Go turnovers.

CELTICS ADD NBA VET: Maine acquired guard Keon Johnson off of waivers on Dec. 1. The 21st overall pick in the 2021 NBA Draft, Johnson has played in 161 career NBA games, including 79 for Brooklyn last season. He averaged 10.6 points per game for the Nets in 2024-25. Johnson has also played in 57 G League games in his career, 41 of those with Long Island in 2023-24.

HARPER JR. NAMED POW: Maine Celtics Two-Way guard Ron Harper Jr. was named NBA G League Player of the Week for games played Nov. 17-23. Harper led Maine to a perfect record in the week, averaging 36.0 points per game. He threw in a career-high 46 points in the Nov. 21 win over Delaware, the fifth most in a single game in franchise history.

ASSISTS ASSIST BIG COMEBACK: The Maine Celtics dished out a Franchise Record 43 assists in Maine's come-from-behind 129-119 win over Delaware on Nov. 23. The Celtics trailed by as many as 23 points in the first half before roaring back.

THAT WAS FAST: The Maine Celtics have their first GATORADE Call-Up to the NBA of the season. Wendell Moore Jr. signed a Two-Way contract with the Detroit Pistons on Nov. 10. Moore averaged 21.5 points over Maine's first two games of the season, including a career-best 28 point performance on Nov. 7. The NBA veteran has played 90 games in his career for Minnesota, Charlotte, and Detroit. Last season, two Maine Celtics earned call-ups – Ron Harper Jr. (Two-Way, Detroit) and Phillip Wheeler (10-day, Philadelphia).

PRESSEY MAKES DEBUT: Maine Celtics new head coach Phil Pressey made his head coaching debut Nov. 7 at Greensboro. Pressey, who served as a player development coach in Boston last season, was named 11th head coach in Maine franchise history this fall, replacing Tyler Lashbrook, who left to accept a full-time assistant coach position with the Boston Celtics. Pressey is the first Maine head coach who also played for the franchise – the former point guard played one game for the then-Maine Red Claws during the 2014-15 season, scoring 34 points. Former Maine head coach Jarell Christian remains general manager of Maine for a fourth season.

NEW-LOOK CELTICS: Only three players are back with the Maine Celtics from last year's squad. Two-Way guard Ron Harper, Jr. is back with Maine after playing 14 games for the Celtics last season, averaging 17.4 points, 4.5 rebounds, and 2.7 assists per game. Harper earned a GATORADE Call-Up, signing a Two-Way Contract with the Detroit Pistons. Forward Hason Ward returns for a second season – in his rookie campaign, Ward was the only player to play in all 50 games in 2024-25. And Kameron Warrens returns to the Celtics for 2025-26 – the guard played 21 games for Maine last season.

REPLACING THE MVP: For the first time since the 2021-22 season, the Maine Celtics are without JD Davison. The point guard played three seasons for Maine, all on a Two-Way Contract. Davison was named NBA G League MVP last season, averaging 25.6 points, 5.0 rebounds, and 7.8 assists per game. Davison finished his time in Maine as the franchise leader in almost every statistical category, including points (2,677), assists (1,065), steals (159), field goals (994), minutes (4,475), and games played (133). He is also the franchise playoff leader in most categories. Davison finished last season on a full contract with Boston. He was waived in the off-season and is currently on a Two-Way Contract with the Houston Rockets.

PHIL PRESSEY

Head Coach

Overall Record: 24-22 (.522)

Seasons as Head Coach in G League: 1

Seasons as Head Coach with Maine: 1

Head Coach - Phil Pressey

On July 2, 2025, Phil Pressey made history, accepting the role of Head Coach for the 2025-26 NBA G League season. Pressey becomes the first head coach in franchise history to also play for Maine during his career. The former NBA guard played at the Portland Expo while on assignment from the Boston Celtics during the 2014-15 season.

"I'd like to thank Brad Stevens, Joe Mazzulla, and the entire Celtics organization for believing in me and giving me a chance to grow, lead, and develop," said Pressey. "I'm grateful for the opportunity and I will give my all to this team. The community of Portland is amazing, and I remember my time as a player was unforgettable at the Expo. My goal is to instill winning habits into every player who suits up for the Maine Celtics."

Pressey began his coaching career in 2022 as an assistant coach with his alma mater, the University of Missouri. He then joined the Boston Celtics in 2023 where he has been ever since, working as a Player Development coach.

A three-year standout at Missouri, Pressey played in 148 career NBA games over three seasons, 125 of those with the Celtics from 2013-15. In that time, he averaged 3.1 points, 1.9 rebounds, and 2.9 assists per game. Additionally, he played in 78 career G League games from 2014-17.

"Phil is a dedicated coach who has been instrumental in our player development over the last two seasons," said Boston Celtics Head Coach Joe Mazzulla. "I am looking forward to seeing him grow as a coach and leader. He shows great energy and a willingness to learn. His personality and communication will be a gift to his players."

"We're excited to welcome Phil to the Maine Celtics as our new head coach," said Maine Celtics General Manager Jarell Christian. "Phil's journey – from playing in the NBA and NBA G League to developing talent with the Boston Celtics – makes him the perfect fit to lead our team and connect with the Maine community. We can't wait for our fans to get to know him and see the energy and passion he brings to the game." Pressey is the son of former NBA player Paul Pressey, who also was an assistant coach for seven NBA teams from 1992-2016.
