MAINE CELTICS NOTES

HERE WE GO!: The Maine Celtics open the 2026-27 season tonight vs. Westchester. This is the 17th season of NBA G League basketball in Maine, and the sixth as the Maine Celtics. Maine and Westchester met four times last season, with the Celtics winning 3 out of 4 matchups.

PRESSEY RETURNS: Maine Celtics head coach Phil Pressey returns for a second season as head coach. This is the first time Maine has had a returning head coach since Brandon Bailey coached a second season in 2018-19. Pressey wrapped up his head coaching debut season with a 27-23 record in 2025-26, and a fourth consecutive NBA G League Playoff appearance for Maine. The Celtics were one of four teams to qualify for both the NBA G League Playoffs and the Winter Showcase Tournament, the In-Season tournament that takes place at the end of the Tip-Off Tournament portion of the season.

CELTICS ASSIGN CENAC: Boston has assigned rookie Chris Cenac Jr. to Maine. Cenac is expected to make his debut tonight at the Expo. The 27th overall pick in the 2026 NBA Draft, Cenac has played in 3 games for Boston this season, averaging 2.7 points per game. The 19-year-old is known for his high-flying presence on the glass.

TWO NEW TWO-WAYS: Two of Maine's Two-Way Players are new to the team. Devin Carter was the 13th overall pick in the 2024 NBA Draft. Carter joins the Celtics after playing two seasons with the Sacramento Kings. Last season, Carter averaged 8.9 points in 38 games (12 starts) for Sacramento. Carter has played in 74 career NBA games. Meanwhile, rookie Dillon Mitchell joins the Celtics after being selected in the 2nd Round (40th overall) of the 2026 NBA Draft. Mitchell, an athletic forward out of St. John's, made his NBA debut on Nov. 3 at Houston.

WILLIAMS RETURNS: Big man Amari Williams is back in Maine, signing another Two-Way contract with the Celtics. Williams, a 2nd Round (46th overall) selection in the 2025 NBA Draft, played in 28 games for Maine last season, averaging 15.8 points, 10.9 rebounds, 4.9 assists, and 1.9 blocks per game. Williams recorded four triple-doubles and 11 double-doubles last season for Maine topping 10 rebounds in 16 of his 28 games played.

FAMILIAR FACES: Hayden Gray and Hank Morgan both return to Maine for a second season as well. Gray is back after earning a late NBA Call-Up last season to the Utah Jazz. Gray made his NBA debut in Utah's regular season finale on April 12, 2026, scoring 6 points. He was waived by Utah and re-joined Maine, who held his Returning Player Rights. Gray set the Maine Celtics' single-season record with 98 steals last season. Morgan is back after a breakout rookie season last year. In 17 games with Maine, Morgan averaged 8.2 points while shooting 42.4% from three-point range.

NBA EXPERIENCE: The Maine Celtics boast 123 career NBA games played. Ron Harper, Jr. and Amari Williams have each played 2 games for Boston this season, while Harper also played for Detroit last season. Jalen Bridges, Kendall Brown and Wendell Moore, Jr. each share the NBA experience.

PLAYOFF PROWESS: Maine enters 2026-27 with four consecutive playoff appearances. Last season, the Celtics fell in the first round to eventual NBA G League Champion Greensboro.

SPLIT SEASON: Like last season, the first part of the NBA G League season will build towards the Tip-Off Tournament. The first 14 games of the season will build towards a winner-take-all tournament, which takes place at the NBA G League Winter Showcase in December. The standings will reset at the Showcase for a 36-game Regular Season, followed by traditional NBA G League Playoffs.

PHIL PRESSEY	Head Coach
Overall Record: 27-23 (.000)	Seasons as Head Coach in G League: 2 Seasons as Head Coach with Maine: 2

Head Coach - Phil Pressey

On July 2, 2025, Phil Pressey made history, accepting the role of Head Coach for the 2025-26 NBA G League season. Pressey became the first head coach in franchise history to also play for Maine during his career. The former NBA guard played at the Portland Expo while on assignment from the Boston Celtics during the 2014-15 season.

On October 1, 2026, the Maine Celtics announced that Pressey would be returning for a second season as head coach.

"I'm grateful for another opportunity to lead the Maine Celtics," said Pressey. "The goal is for everyone who comes through the Expo to leave better than when they got here. Going into my second season, I'm excited to give all I can to the community and the Celtics organization."

Pressey is the first returning Maine head coach in seven seasons. In his first season as a head coach at any level, Pressey led Maine to a 27-23 record overall. The Maine Celtics reached the NBA G League Playoffs for a fourth consecutive season. Maine was one of six G League teams to qualify for both the league's in-season tournament and the traditional G League Playoffs last season.

Pressey began his coaching career in 2022 as an assistant coach with his alma mater, the University of Missouri. He then joined the Boston Celtics in 2023, where he has been ever since, working as a Player Development coach.
A three-year standout at Missouri, Pressey played in 148 career NBA games over three seasons, 125 of those with the Celtics from 2013-15. In that time, he averaged 3.1 points, 1.9 rebounds, and 2.9 assists per game. Additionally, he played in 78 career G League games from 2014-17.

Pressey is the son of former NBA player Paul Pressey, who also was an assistant coach for seven NBA teams from 1992-2016.

At Summer League, DeVries played in four games for the Celtics, averaging 8.8 points in 19.3 minutes per game. He logged two NBA preseason games as well, including a 9 point-6 rebound performance in a starting role in Boston's preseason finale at Philadelphia, an overtime win. Collegiately, DeVries played in 32 games for Indiana University in his senior season, averaging 13.7 points, 5.2 rebounds, and 3.3 assists per game. Prior to IU, DeVries played at West Virginia in 2024-25 and Drake for the three prior seasons, where he was named First Team All-Conference and Most Outstanding Player of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament in both 2023 and 2024.

Hayden Gray – 6-4 – 190 pounds – College: UC-San Diego – How Acquired: Returning Player Rights

Hayden Gray is back with the Maine Celtics after an extremely successful rookie campaign. The point guard played in 48 of Maine's 50 games, averaging 9.9 points, 2.8 rebounds, 5.8 assists, and 2.0 steals per game. Gray set a Maine franchise single-season record with 98 steals in 2025-26. One year prior, Gray led the entire NCAA in steals while wrapping up a successful career at UC-San Diego, leading the Tritons to their first-ever NCAA appearance. On April 11, 2026, Gray earned a GATORADE Call-Up to the NBA, signing a contract with the Utah Jazz. In Utah's final game of the season, Gray played 25 minutes and scored 6 points in his NBA debut, becoming the first UC-San Diego product to play in an NBA game. He played with Utah during Summer League before joining Boston for training camp, playing in two NBA preseason games.

Caleb Grill – 6-3 – 205 pounds – College: Missouri – How Acquired: Returning Player Rights (Trade)

The Maine Celtics acquired the Returning Player rights for Caleb Grill from the Greensboro Swarm on Sept. 25, 2026. Grill enjoyed a successful rookie season in the NBA G League, playing in 41 games between Windy City and Greensboro, averaging 9.9 points, 3.0 rebounds, and 1.0 assists per game. He finished the season with Greensboro, helping the Swarm win the 2026 NBA G League title. In college, Gray played parts of two seasons in Missouri, including 30 games in his final season in 2024-25, averaging 13.3 points and 3.5 rebounds per game. He was named SEC Sixth Man of the year in 2025.

Steven Jamerson II – 6-10 – 230 pounds – College: UCLA – How Acquired: 2026 Tryouts

Steven Jamerson II begins his professional career in 2026-27 after four NCAA seasons, the last being at UCLA where he played in 35 games for the Bruins, averaging 1.9 points and 2.0 rebounds per game. Before joining UCLA, Jamerson played three seasons at San Diego, including the 2024-25 season where he averaged 10.0 points per game.

Logan Johnson – 6-2 – 180 pounds – College: Saint Mary's – How Acquired: Returning Player Rights (Trade)

Maine acquired the Returning Player rights to Logan Johnson on Oct. 2, 2026 in a trade with Oklahoma City. Johnson played for the Blue in both the 2023-24 and 2024-25 seasons, averaging 8.8 points, 3.2 rebounds, and 3.4 assists in 69 career G League games. Johnson helped Oklahoma City defeat Maine in the 2024 NBA G League Finals. The Saint Mary's product averaged 14.4 points and 5.0 rebounds per game in his final season in 2022-23, helping the Gaels reach the NCAA Tournament second round for a second consecutive year. Saint Mary's won 93 games over the four seasons that Johnson was on the team.

Gabe McGlothan – 6-6 – 235 pounds – College: Grand Canyon – How Acquired: Returning Player Rights (Trade)

NBA G League veteran Gabe McGlothan joins the Maine Celtics for his third professional season, all with different G League teams. The product of Grand Canyon University has 79 G League games under his belt. He played 37 games for the Noblesville Boom last season, averaging 15.8 points, 7.3 rebounds, and 1.9 assists per game. In 2024-25, McGlothan played in 42 games for the Grand Rapids Gold. This offseason, McGlothan played for the Indiana Pacers' Summer League team before joining Boston during training camp. He played in two NBA preseason games for the Celtics, including starting in the preseason finale in Philadelphia, scoring 6 points and grabbing 13 rebounds. In college, McGlothan averaged 12.8 points in back to back seasons at Grand Canyon, helping the Antelopes reach the NCAA Tournament both seasons.

Hank Morgan – 6-5 – 200 pounds – College: Hamilton – How Acquired: Returning Player Rights

Sharpshooter Hank Morgan is back with the Maine Celtics for a second straight season. A NCAA-Div. III product, Morgan was very familiar with Maine, playing at Hamilton College along with NESCAC rivals Bates, Bowdoin and Colby College. Morgan played in 32 NBA G League games during his rookie season in 2025-26, 15 with Salt Lake City and 17 with Maine. While on the Celtics, Morgan averaged 8.2 points per game while shooting 42.4% from three-point range. Morgan was named NESCAC Player of the Year in 2025 after averaging 21.8 points and 5.8 rebounds per game. He was twice named to the All-NESCAC First Team.

Josh Roberts – 6-9 – 220 pounds – College: Manhattan – How Acquired: 2026 NBA G League Draft

Josh Roberts was selected with the 6th overall pick in the 2026 NBA Draft. The forward has been playing the past three seasons overseas at various places. Prior to that, Roberts completed a five-year collegiate career, playing his first three seasons at St. John's before transferring to Manhattan College. Roberts was named MAAC Defensive Player of the Year in 2023, while also averaging 12.2 points and 9.8 rebounds per game in his final season with the Jaspers.

Milos Uzan – 6-3 – 175 pounds – College: Houston – How Acquired: Affiliate Player

Milos Uzan had a familiar face with him at Boston Celtics training camp – Boston first round NBA Draft pick Chris Cenac Jr. was Uzan's teammate at Houston last season. Uzan brings his athletic game to Maine in his first year as a professional. He joined the Celtics on both their Summer League and training camp rosters, playing in five Summer League games and three NBA Preseason contests. Uzan started in the Celtics' Preseason finale at Philadelphia on Oct. 16, scoring 14 points in the win. Uzan averaged 11.1 points per game in his senior season at Houston, and helped the Cougars reach the Final Four in 2025, falling to Florida in the National Championship game. Prior to Houston, Uzan played his first two NCAA seasons at Oklahoma.
