SWARM INTELLIGENCE

5TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

The Greensboro Swarm is celebrating the 5th Anniversary of the inaugural 2016-17 season during the 2021-22 NBA G League season. The season-long commemoration is presented by Blue Ridge Companies. Elements of the campaign include recognition of season ticket members and corporate partners, a philanthropic 5 Months of Giving initiative, a new mascot unveil, enhanced game presentation elements, diverse theme nights and much more throughout the entire season.

SURENKAMP AT THE HELM

Jordan Surenkamp was named the third head coach in Swarm history on September 15, 2021.

Surenkamp was elevated to the role after serving as the Hornets head video coordinator. He has been with the organization, starting as an assistant video coordinator, since 2018. Surenkamp has previous experience with the Brooklyn Nets (2017-18) and South Alabama (2013-17). A Indianapolis native, Surenkamp graduated from Wabash College where he earned a degree in speech communication and rhetoric while also playing on the men's basketball team.

GOODBYE SHOWCASE CUP, HELLO REGULAR SEASON

The NBA G League announced a new format to the season structure, featuring an expanded Showcase Cup followed by a regular season starting on January 5, 2022.

The Showcase Cup had the league's 29 teams divided into four regional pods where they played 12 games against one another. Teams with the best winning-percentage in each pod, along with the next four teams across the league with the best winning-percentages, will advanced to compete for the Showcase Cup – a single-elimination tournament during the NBA G League Winter Showcase. Greensboro (4-10) failed to make the tournament but played two games outside of the Showcase Cup during the event.

Following the Showcase Cup, team records reset and a regular season takes place. At the conclusion of the regular season, the top six teams in each conference will qualify for the NBA G League Playoffs.

BELIEF IN THE SYSTEM

The Charlotte Hornets continue to prioritize the Greensboro Swarm in its player development program. Current players on the Hornets roster who have played a game with the Swarm include James Bouknight, Vernon Carey Jr., Kai Jones, Cody Martin, Jalen McDaniels, Nick Richards and JT Thor.

The Swarm roster currently includes James Bouknight and Kai Jones on assignment as well as two-way players Arnoldas Kulboka and Scottie Lewis. The Hornets continue to invest in young talent, incorporating four players from its preseason roster to play for the Swarm. Those players include D.J. Carton, Jalen Crutcher and Cameron McGriff.

Veteran Joe Chealey returns to the Swarm for this third season with the organization.

Greensboro positioned itself to acquire several talented young players in the 2021-22 NBA G League Draft, selecting LiAngelo Ball (No. 14), Chudier Bile (No. 23), Tyree White (No. 26) and Ikenna Ndugba (No. 54). One tryout player is on the Swarm roster as well, Mitchell Wilbekin. Norense Odiase was acquired from the available player pool. Jarrell Brantley was added via waivers.

SINGLE-SITE SOUVENIRS

Greensboro was one of 18 teams to compete at the NBA G League Single-Site in 2021 at the ESPN Wide World of Sports Complex at Walt Disney World Resort in Orlando, Florida. The team was led by Hornets assistant coach Jay Hernandez.

The Swarm finished with a 5-10 overall record and was led by two Hornets assignment players – Vernon Carey Jr. and Nick Richards. Jalen McDaniels also appeared in two games for the Swarm in Orlando.

Carey appeared in 14 games and averaged 16.0 points, 9.4 rebounds and 1.1 blocks in 26.5 minutes. Richards averaged 17.0 points and 10.3 rebounds in 26.3 minutes.

To play the Showcase Cup, the league's 29 teams were separated into four regional pods, where they played 12 games against one another. Teams with the best winning-percentage in each pod, along with the next four teams across the league, advance to a single-elimination tournament at the NBA G League Winter Showcase. The remaining teams played two games outside of the tournament.
