BASKETBALL OPERATIONS STAFF

GENERAL MANAGER, KEVIN TILLER II

Kevin Tiller II is entering his fifth season with the Orlando Magic and his first as General Manager of the Lakeland Magic. Prior to his promotion, Tiller began his career as an intern with the Orlando Magic, followed by four seasons as the Player Development Coordinator/Scout. Later, Tiller became a full-time scout for the Magic. Additionally, Tiller gained invaluable experience working with the NBA G League pathway team, Team Ignite, as the Director of Basketball Operations during their inaugural year. A native of Richmond, Virginia, Tiller attended Guilford College (Greensboro, NC), where he was a three-sport athlete in football, basketball, and track. Aside from the playing field, Tiller fulfilled numerous off court positions, such as a cameraman and broadcaster for the spring sports at Guilford. Additionally, Tiller was afforded a unique opportunity to intern for Walt Disney World in Orlando for a semester. After graduating with a bachelor's degree in Business Management, Tiller earned a Sports Leadership Master's degree at Virginia Commonwealth University while serving as a graduate assistant for VCU's Men's basketball team..

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, TRENT PENNINGTON

Trent Pennington is in his fifth season with the Lakeland Magic and first as the club's assistant GM. Trent, originally from Salem, IN, graduated from Indiana University Bloomington in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in law and public policy. While an undergrad, Pennington interned, and eventually joined staff, with DistinXion, a Bloomington-based non-profit founded by Luke Zeller that teaches character and faith to youth through basketball programming. Trent completed his master's in sport administration at IU in 2018 while interning for Exclusive Sports Group, a talent agency based in Indianapolis that serves NFL players, coaches, and executives. While completing his final semester of grad school, Pennington interned with the Indiana Pacers as a basketball operations intern with a focus on pre-draft preparation. Trent transitioned to Lakeland in the fall of 2018 as a basketball operations associate before being promoted to basketball operations coordinator the past two seasons. Trent resides in Orlando with his wife, Courtney.

HEAD COACH, JOE BARRER

Joe Barrer is in his second season as head coach of the Lakeland Magic. Barrer has been on the bench as a coach for every Lakeland Magic game in franchise history. In his four seasons as assistant and associate head coach in Lakeland under Stan Heath, the Magic were tied for the most regular season wins in the league and won the 2021 NBA G League championship. Prior to joining the Lakeland Magic, Barrer served as an assistant coach with the Iowa Energy (now the Iowa Wolves, NBA G League affiliate of the Minnesota Timberwolves). Before joining the Energy, Barrer was an assistant coach at Bethel University and Truman State University and spent five years as the head coach of Assumption High School in Davenport, Iowa. Barrer began his career as director of basketball operations at George Mason University during their 2006 Final Four run. Barrer played for four years at Saint Ambrose University where he helped lead the program to the MCC championship in 2000, 2002 and 2003. Following his collegiate playing career, Barrer received his master's in Fitness and Health Promotion from George Mason University.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH, JOHNNY TAYLOR

Johnny Taylor is in his fifth season with the Lakeland Magic and first in the role of associate head coach. A native of Chattanooga, TN, Taylor played college basketball for his hometown Mocs from 1995 to 1997 that included a run to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997 and capturing conference player of the year honors. Following his collegiate career, Johnny was drafted 17th overall by the Orlando Magic in the 1997 NBA Draft. Taylor enjoyed a professional playing career that spanned 15 seasons, three of which were in the NBA with the Orlando Magic and Denver Nuggets. After retiring from professional basketball, he began his coaching career at his alma mater, UT-Chanooga, underneath the leadership of Will Wade. Taylor joined Wade's staff at VCU as a player development coach prior to joining the Lakeland Magic as an assistant coach. He and his wife are the proud parents of five children, four girls and one boy. He has especially enjoyed watching his son begin his college basketball career at his alma mater in Chattanooga.

ASSISTANT COACH, AHMAD NIVINS

Ahmad Nivins is in his second year on Joe Barrer's staff as an assistant coach. Nivins was previously an assistant coach for the Maine Red Claws (now the Maine Celtics) during the 2019-20 season with a focus on opponent scouting, offensive and defensive strategy, and player development. A native of New Jersey, Nivins attended famed St. Anthony High School, where he played for legendary Hall of Fame coach, Bob Hurley, and was part of the undefeated 2003-04 national championship team. After a four-year playing career at Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia, where he earned 2009 Atlantic 10 Player of the Year and the Robert V. Greasy Trophy for Philadelphia Big 5 Most Outstanding Basketball Player, Nivins was inducted into the Saint Joseph's Basketball Hall of Fame. Nivins was the 56th pick in the 2009 NBA Draft before enjoying an international career which landed him in Spain, Belgium, France, and Israel.

ASSISTANT COACH, JACK HOSTETLER

Jack Hostetler is in his second year on Joe Barrer's staff as an assistant coach. Hostetler graduated from Saint Joseph's College of Maine in 2019 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. A member of the men's basketball team, he left with the highest career 3-point percentage in the school's history, shooting 52% his senior year. After graduation, Hostetler traveled to Los Angeles to work with Noah LaRoche, owner of Integrity Hoops, where he helped coach and train numerous NBA players. Prior to the 2019-2020 NBA season, Hostetler was hired by the Boston Celtics as an assistant coach with the Maine Red Claws. As a member of the coaching staff during the shortened season, Hostetler was responsible for player development, film breakdown and scouting reports. During the Covid-19 pandemic, Hostetler continued to work with Integrity Hoops while also running player development programs for youth and professional players at The Court Basketball in Enfield, CT.

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER, MARK MAHONEY

Mark Mahoney is in his ninth season with the Orlando Magic, spending the previous five years as Head Athletic Trainer of the Lakeland Magic and the three years prior as the Head Athletic Trainer of the Erie Bayhawks. He joins Orlando after spending three seasons (2011-2014) as Head Athletic Trainer of the Springfield Armor, NBADL Affiliate of the Brooklyn Nets. Mahoney came to Springfield after spending one season with the Kansas City Chiefs as a Seasonal Athletic Training Intern and one season as the Head Athletic Trainer of the Kansas City Command in the Arena Football League. A native of Derby, KS, Mahoney received a Master of Art Degree in Health PE and Recreation with an emphasis in Exercise Science from the University of South Dakota in 2010. He earned his Bachelor of Science Degree in Athletic Training from Emporia State University in 2008. Mahoney is nationally certified and state licensed as an Athletic Trainer (ATC and LAT), Performance Enhancement Specialist (PES), Corrective Exercise Specialist (CES) and Sports Manual Therapy Certified (SMTTC). Mahoney and his wife, Kim, reside in Orlando with their dog Marlin.

HEAD OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING, HASEEB FASIHI

Haseeb Fasihi is in his sixth season with the Lakeland Magic as the team's strength and performance coach. Fasihi graduated from UCF in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science and holds his CSCS (Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach). He started his career as a player development specialist at IMG Academy where he developed and trained over 100 NBA and college players from 2010 to 2015. He is the co-founder and player development coach at M.A.D.E. Performance where he trains numerous NBA clients and incoming rookies during the pre-draft process each off-season. Fasihi has served as a strength and conditioning coach at the NBA combine since 2017 and is the editor and owner of Swish Confidential.

STRENGTH & PERFORMANCE COORDINATOR, EARL WILCOX

Early Wilcox is in his fifth season with the Lakeland Magic. Born and raised in Central Florida, Wilcox graduated from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology with a concentration in sports medicine. After graduation, he interned with EXOS and Athletic Lab working with a variety of sports and athletes on both strength and conditioning and sport science. Prior to joining the Lakeland Magic, Wilcox completed a sport psychology internship with a local golf academy.
