GENERAL MANAGER, KEVIN TILLER II

Kevin Tiller II is entering his sixth season with the Orlando Magic and his second as General Manager of the Lakeland Magic. Prior to his promotion, Tiller began his career as an intern with the Orlando Magic, followed by four seasons as the Player Development Coordinator/Scout. Later, Tiller became a full-time scout for the Magic. Additionally, Tiller gained invaluable experience working with the NBA G League pathway team, Team Ignite, as the Director of Basketball Operations during their inaugural year. A native of Richmond, Virginia, Tiller attended Guilford College (Greensboro, NC), where he was a three-sport athlete in football, basketball, and track. Aside from the playing field, Tiller fulfilled numerous of off court positions, such as a cameraman and broadcaster for the spring sports at Guilford. Additionally, Tiller was afforded a unique opportunity to intern for Walt Disney World in Orlando for a semester. After graduating with a bachelor's degree in Business Management, Tiller earned a Sports Leadership Master's degree at Virginia Commonwealth University while serving as a graduate assistant for VCU's Men's basketball team..

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, TRENT PENNINGTON

Trent Pennington is in his sixth season with the Lakeland Magic and second as the club's assistant GM. Trent, originally from Salem, IN, graduated from Indiana University Bloomington in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in law and public policy. While an undergrad, Pennington interned, and eventually joined staff, with DistinXion, a Bloomington-based non-profit founded by Luke Zeller that teaches character and faith to youth through basketball programming. Trent completed his master's in sport administration at IU in 2018 while interning for Exclusive Sports Group, a talent agency based in Indianapolis that serves NFL players, coaches, and executives. While completing his final semester of grad school, Pennington interned with the Indiana Pacers as a basketball operations intern with a focus on pre-draft preparation. Trent transitioned to Lakeland in the fall of 2018 as a basketball operations associate before being promoted to basketball operations coordinator the past two seasons. Trent resides in Orlando with his wife, Courtney.

HEAD COACH, DYLAN MURPHY

Dylan Murphy has spent the last five seasons with the Orlando Magic, including three seasons as an assistant coach (2020-23). From 2018-20, he served as basketball operations analyst, providing analytics support to the coaching staff.
Murphy joined Orlando after serving as a graduate assistant with the men's basketball team at Ball State University in 2018. Before his time with Ball State, he spent one season (2016-17) as an NBA G League scout for the Atlanta Hawks. In that role, he was responsible for identifying potential call-up candidates for the Hawks NBA roster. Prior to Atlanta, Murphy spent three seasons (2013-16) as assistant coach of the Fort Wayne Mad

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH, JOHNNY TAYLOR

Johnny Taylor is in his sixth season with the Lakeland Magic and first in the role of associate head coach. A native of Chattanooga, TN, Taylor played college basketball for his hometown Mocs from 1995 to 1997 that included a run to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1997 and capturing conference player of the year honors. Following his collegiate career, Johnny was drafted 17th overall by the Orlando Magic in the 1997 NBA Draft. Taylor enjoyed a professional playing career that spanned 15 seasons, three of which were in the NBA with the Orlando Magic and Denver Nuggets. After retiring from professional basketball, he began his coaching career at his alma mater, UT-Chatanooga, underneath the leadership of Will Wade. Taylor joined Wade's staff at VCU as a player development coach prior to joining the Lakeland Magic as an assistant coach. He and his wife are the proud parents of five children, four girls and one boy. He has especially enjoyed watching his son begin his college basketball career at his alma mater in Chatanooga.

ASSISTANT COACH, JACK HOSTETLER

Jack Hostetler is in his third year on the Magic staff as an assistant coach. Hostetler graduated from Saint Joseph's College of Maine in 2019 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. A member of the men's basketball team, he left with the highest career 3-point percentage in the school's history, shooting 52% his senior year. After graduation, Hostetler traveled to Los Angeles to work with Noah LaRoche, owner of Integrity Hoops, where he helped coach and train numerous NBA players. Prior to the 2019-2020 NBA season, Hostetler was hired by the Boston Celtics as an assistant coach with the Maine Red Claws. As a member of the coaching staff during the shortened season, Hostetler was responsible for player development, film breakdown and scouting reports. During the Covid-19 pandemic, Hostetler continued to work with Integrity Hoops while also running player development programs for youth and professional players at The Court Basketball in Enfield, CT.

ASSISTANT COACH, THOMAS BRIDGES

Thomas Bridges is in his first year on the Magic staff as an assistant coach. Bridges graduated from Georgia Institute of Technology in 2017 with a bachelor's degree in Computational Media. After graduation, Bridges worked with the Delaware Blue Coats for two seasons 2017-19 as an operations intern and then promoted to Video Coordinator. In 2020 he would be promoted once again as Assitant Video Cordinator for the Philadelphia 76ers and also srved as a part time Advanced Scout.
